PAPAL INTENTION FOR JULY - 2014

General Intention: That sports may always be occasions of human fraternity and growth.

Missionary intention: That the Holy Spirit may support the work of the laity who proclaim the Gospel in the poorest countries.

OUR BISHOP SPEAKS*QUALITIES OF A CHARISMATIC EVANGELIZER

Respected and dear brother - priests, religious and laity,

One of the best living Charismatic Evangelizer is Pope Francis.

Today we are living in a world of models. Pope Francis can serve as an excellent model for us and help us do our ministry in the best way possible as perfect Charismatic Evangelizers.

Pope Francis is the first Pope to feature on the cover page of the popular rock magazine Rolling Stone.

He was also named Person of the Year (2013) by the Time magazine.

What are the characteristics of Pope Francis which have attracted our modern world?

1. On March 13, 2013 when Pope Francis presented himself for the first time at the balcony of St. Peter's Basilica he appeared in a simple white Cassock. Yes, his dress was very simple. Today his simplicity is attracting the world.

The virtue of simplicity consists in having a heart that is not divided between God and the world. It consists in opting for God.

2. The Pope's first speech was spontaneous. It was not a speech written ahead of time. He talked to the world in a very unassuming and straightforward manner.

To be spontaneous means to be natural. To be natural means to say something or to do something being induced by a voluntary impulse from within. In other words to be spontaneous means to be unassuming or to be straightforward.

3. On the day of his election as the Pope, Pope Francis appeared before his flock as a very humble shepherd. He said, "Before the Bishop blesses his people, I ask you to pray to the Lord so that he will bless me - you pray over me."

The word humility comes from the Latin word 'humus.' Humus means ground. As we know that humility is the mother of all virtues. In 2013, on Holy Thursday the Pope washed the feet of the 12 youth in a Roman prison and commemorated Jesus' gesture of humility towards his apostles the night before he died. Among the 12 there were two women - one an Italian Catholic girl and the other a Siberian Muslim.

4. Besides simplicity, spontaneity and humility the austerity of the Pope has attracted the world a lot. An austere person is one who lives a life that is free from comforts and pleasures. As the rector of the major seminary in Argentina the Pope used to cook for the students on Sunday.

The day after the election he travelled in a minibus together with the Cardinals for the mass in the Sistine Chapel. After the mass, he insisted on being driven to the hotel where he had stayed before the conclave, so that he could collect his luggage and pay his bill. Now he is not living in the regal papal apartment.

5. Pope Francis has taken the name of St. Francis of Assisi. Pope Pius XI has called St. Francis of Assisi "another Jesus Christ." St. Francis of Assisi was more affective than intellectual. What many of the reformers could not achieve through arguments, Francis could achieve through sympathy and empathy. The present Pope is a perfect model of Jesus Christ who always stood by the side of the wounded and the abandoned.

In the interview given to Fr. Antonio Spadaro, the director of the Italian Jesuit magazine La Civiltà Cattolica in August, 2013 the Pope said: "I can clearly see what the Church needs today is the ability to heal wounds and warm the hearts of the faithful."

In a letter written to the 19 new members, elevated to the College of Cardinals, the Pope asked them to be away from "any expression of worldliness, from any celebration alien to the evangelical spirit of austerity, simplicity and poverty."

In his encyclical Evangelii Gaudium in article 49 Pope writes: " I prefer a Church which is bruised, hurting and dirty."

6. What is at the heart of the papacy of Pope Francis is 'mercy.' According to him the Bishops and the priests should walk in the footsteps of God who sent Jonah to Nineveh. Nineveh was the symbol of the lost and the marginalized of mankind.

Mercy means to look at the people of God not as they ought to be, but as they are and see what is necessary, without preconceived ideas and prescriptions.

During his first appearance at the Sunday Angelus, explaining the Gospel of the day 'about the woman caught in adultery' (Jn 8: 1-11) the Pope said: "Jesus' attitude is striking... we do not hear the words of condemnation, but only words of love."

7. The 77 year old Pope always looks cheerful and happy. His face always radiates joy and charm. He smiles a mile. Once he said to a group of cloistered nuns: "I am so disappointed when I encounter nuns who are joyless, who may smile with the smile of a flight attendant but not with the smile of a joy that comes from within."

8. The Pope is an optimist. Optimism means to believe that good will triumph over evil in the end. On March 15, 2013 when he had the audience with the Cardinals in the Clementine Hall, the Pope said: "Let us never yield to pessimism, to that bitterness that the devil offers us every day."

9. The Pope is for reformation. What kind of reformation does he advocate? He is for internal and personal reformation. He says: "The first reform must be of attitude... the structural and organizational reforms come afterwards."

10. The Pope is friendly with everybody including the other Christian denominations and religions. He always reflects a calm, serene and loving poise that even children are not afraid of hanging on to his cassock, removing the skull cap or even being seated on the papal chair without being threatened.

Now if we ask the Pope what kind of qualities he would expect of a perfect charismatic evangelizer, he may point out the following qualities:

1. Simplicity
2. Spontaneity
3. Humility
4. Austerity
5. Ability to heal wounds
6. Mercy
7. Cheerfulness
8. Optimism
9. Giving importance to internal reformation
10. Friendliness

Wishing you all success in your apostolic ministry,

Yours affectionately in our Lord,
+F. Antonisamy.
